MOSES's PRINCIPIA. Of the invisible Parts of Matter; Of Motion: Of visible Forms; and of their Dissolution, and Reformation, with Notes; Whereby the Difficulties in Description, and Situation at the Formation are explain'd; all Pretensions to the Discovery of the Dissolution of the Earth at the Flood, or to any other Truth in that Transaction are set aside, by shewing whence the Pretenders had them; and all the Falshoods annexed to them are exploded, by shewing whence they came, and how those Mistakes arose.

An Essay toward a Natural History of the Bible; especially of some Parts which relate to the Occasion of revealing Moses's Principia: As far as the Translation carries it; which has omitted, or evaded (after that which concerns Christ) the chief End of the Scripture; which was to shew what the Objects the Heathens serv'd were, that they were not Gods, nor to be serv'd, nor their Emblems to be ador'd; And to reduce Men to the Service of God.

Moses's Principia Part II. Of the Circulation of the Heavens; Of the Cause of the Motion and Course of the Earth, Moon, &c. Of the Religion, Philosophy, and Emblems of the Heathens before Moses writ; and of the Jews after; in Conformation of the Natural History of the Bible: With Notes by J. H. Whereby the real Agents and their Powers which carry on all the Motions and Operations in the Matter of this System are shew'd to Sense; by God who created, fram'd and constituted them, from the plain Words in the sacred Hebrew Text. And thereby that the Suppositions of any other Powers, pretended to be set up by any of the Philosophers, are shew'd to be imaginary, and false; and that these real Agents and their Powers were the Objects which all the Heathens serv'd, and all the Emblems they ador'd were Representations of them, and that all other Accounts we have had of what they serv'd or ador'd are groundless Conjectures. And that the proper Emblems, Attributes, Services, and Sacrifices which had been paid to these Powers, were order'd by the Mosaick Law to be paid directly to God, and the rest prohibited; whereby those seemingly strange Expressions, Precepts, Emblems, and Services, are rationally accounted for.

History of the Antiquities of Canterbury, with curious Cuts. By the Rev. Mr. Dart. Price Bound 1 l. 5 s. N. B. There is a small Number printed on large Paper at 2l. 10s.

A curious Collection of Emblems, for the Entertainment and Improvement of Youth. Containing Hieroglyphical and Ænigmatical Devices relating to all Parts and Stations of Life together, with Explanations and Proverbs in French, English, Spanish, Italian, and Latin, alluding to them, and translated into English. The whole curiously engraven on 62 Copper Plates.

Mr. Cooke's Translation of Hesiod. In Two Volumes, Quarto, with Copper Plates. The First Volume contains Two Discourses on the Life and Writings of Hesiod, the Works and Days, in Three Books, with Notes to each Book, Observations on the antient Greek Month, and a View of the Works and Days. The Second Volume contains the Theogony or Generation of the Gods, with Notes, a Discourse on the Theology and Mythology of the Antients, and a Genealogical Table to the Theogony.

Philadore and Placentia, a curious Noval. Two Parts. By Mrs. Haywood.
